

UNIVERSAL SCREEN MAGAZINE

NO. 310 CIN 11071

DEC 18 1917

THIS Screen Magazine will show thousands of women how to make trench candles for the boys in France to read by. It also shows a very interesting scene at St. Nicholas Rink, where Miss Emmy Bergfeldt of St. Moritz is giving private lessons. George Gould is one of her pupils. The training of a police horse is exhaustively shown, and the United States Department of Agriculture has planned very interesting views showing how the forty-five thousand boys who are enrolled in its pig club are taught the best ways of raising pigs for market. Look in the current price columns of any daily paper, and see what pork is bringing a pound now, and then do a little figuring.
